

Monday Night Darts

The first chance to win silverware this season in the Herne Bay & District Winter Darts League came in the Divisional Singles K/O. The Premier Division was all played at the Angling Club and the final saw Laurence Parker of the Angling Club "B" run out a 3-1 winner against Chris Howard of the Divers Arms.

Parker winning his semi-final 3-2 against Craig Critchley of the Hampton Inn and earlier rounds saw wins against Mark Sayer of the Divers Arms and James Wells of the Chislet Club. Howard won his semi-final 3-1 against reigning champion, Paul Dawkins of the Hampton Inn, while he won earlier rounds against David Hards of the Chislet Club, Reece Kiley of the Angling Club "B" and Joe Ralph of the Smugglers Inn "B"

Division One Singles KO was all played at the Heron down to an overall winner and the final saw an all Angling Club "A" affair, with George Grosvenor defeating his team-mate Les Bates 3-0.

Grosvenor won his semi-final 2-0 against another team-mate, Luke Adby, while he won earlier rounds against Max Claughton of the Labour Club and Adam Farmer of the Catholic Club. Bates won his semi-final 2-0 against Labour Club's Steve Russ, and wins in the earlier rounds came against Martin Murphy of the Catholic Club, Mike Moore and Bob Elliott, both from the Heron.
